

D33 Pin Exchange Procedures for Section 6 Tournaments

1. Announce visiting dignitaries, then home dignitaries. Dignitaries go and stand in front of the mound, either on the home or visitor side of the mound. Depending on the coin flip.
2. Umpires stand behind home plate, Announce umpires
3. Announce a visiting player and a home player. They meet at home plate, exchange pins and fist bump the umpires. Then run out and fist bump dignitaries, if they are the home team, they start on the third base side of the mound, if they are visitors, they start on the first base side. They stretch from the mound toward the bases. Home team on the first base side, visitors on the third base side. The adult coaches are last to be announced.
4. Once everyone is in a straight line, you can start the Pledge of Allegiance
